(b) FEDERAL FUNDING. Section 903 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1103) is amended by adding at the end the following: Transfers for Federal Reimbursement of State Unemployment Funds (1)(A) In addition to any other amounts, the Secretary of Labor shall provide for the transfer of funds during the applicable period to the accounts of the States in the Unemployment Trust Fund, by transfer from amounts reserved for that purpose in the Federal unemployment account, in accordance with the succeeding provisions of this subsection. (B) The amount of funds transferred to the account of a State under subparagraph (A) during the applicable period shall, as determined by the Secretary of Labor, be equal to one-half of the amounts of compensation (as defined in section 3306(h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) attributable under the State law to service to which section 3309(a)(1) of such Code applies that were paid by the State for weeks of unemployment beginning and ending during such period. Such transfers shall be made at such times as the Secretary of Labor considers appropriate. (C) Notwithstanding any other law, funds transferred to the account of a State under subparagraph (A) shall be used exclusively H. R. 748-38 to reimburse governmental entities and other organizations described in section 3309(a)(2) of such Code for amounts paid (in lieu of contributions) into the State unemployment fund pursuant to such section. (D) For purposes of this paragraph, the term-applicable period means the period beginning on March 13, 2020, and ending on December 31, 2020. (2)(A) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of the Treasury shall transfer from the general fund of the Treasury (from funds not otherwise appropriated) to the Federal unemployment account such sums as the Secretary of Labor estimates to be necessary for purposes of making the transfers described in paragraph (1). Any State which is a party to an agreement under this section may, upon providing 30 days written notice to the Secretary, terminate such agreement. (b) PROVISIONS OF AGREEMENT. (1) FEDERAL PANDEMIC UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION. Any agreement under this section shall provide that the State agency of the State will make payments of regular compensation to individuals in amounts and to the extent that they would be determined if the State law of the State were applied, with respect to any week for which the individual is (disregarding this section) otherwise entitled under the State law to receive regular compensation, as if such State law had been modified in a manner such that the amount of regular compensation (including dependents allowances) payable for any week shall be equal to (A) the amount determined under the State law (before the application of this paragraph), plus (B) an additional amount of $600 (in this section referred to as Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation). (2) ALLOWABLE METHODS OF PAYMENT. Any Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation provided for in accordance with paragraph (1) shall be payable either (A) as an amount which is paid at the same time and in the same manner as any regular compensation otherwise payable for the week involved; or (B) at the option of the State, by payments which are made separately from, but on the same weekly basis as, any regular compensation otherwise payable. (c) NONREDUCTION RULE. (1) IN GENERAL. An agreement under this section shall not apply (or shall cease to apply) with respect to a State upon a determination by the Secretary that the method governing the computation of regular compensation under the State H. R. 748-39 law of that State has been modified in a manner such that the number of weeks (the maximum benefit entitlement), or the average weekly benefit amount, of regular compensation which will be payable during the period of the agreement (determined disregarding any Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation) will be less than the number of weeks, or the average weekly benefit amount, of the average weekly benefit amount of regular compensation which would otherwise have been payable during such period under the State law, as in effect on January 1, 2020. (2) MAXIMUM BENEFIT ENTITLEMENT. In paragraph (1), the term maximum benefit entitlement means the amount of regular unemployment compensation payable to an individual with respect to the individual's benefit year. 		https://www.hud.gov/program_offices/comm_planning/budget/fy20 The CARES Act provides CDBG grantees with flexibilities that make it easier to use CDBG-CV grants and fiscal years 2019 and 2020 CDBG Grants for coronavirus response and authorizes HUD to grant waivers and alternative requirements. Grantees may use Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds for a range of eligible activities that prevent and respond to the spread of infectious diseases such as the coronavirus. Regarding food systems, funds may be used for public facilities and food delivery efforts. For more specific information on appropriate use visit: https://files.hudexchange.info/resources/documents/Quick-Guide-CDBGInfectiousDisease-Response.pdf?utm_source=HUD+Exchange+Mailing+List&utm_campaign=b8690951ad-CDBG-Quick-Guide-COVID19_3%2F13%2F20&utm_medium=email&utm_term=0_f32b935a5fb8690951ad-19400493 For COVID-19, the CARES Act removed the cap on public services expenditures to prevent, prepare for, or respond to coronavirus, which increases flexibility for grantees and subrecipients to provide emergency grant payments to support housing for a short period (when paid directly to a landlord). Other eligible activities can support housing, - e.g., funding rehabilitation of migrant farm worker housing facilities or related infrastructure.
